

CPD Seminar Permeable Paving as a Storm Water Source Control System

Hanson Formpave are market leaders in Permeable paving. Their storm water source control system has been developed and tested over 15 years.

Seminar details

- Permeable paving SUDS design and construction
- Pollution control and water quality
- Permeable paving on adoptable roads
- Full design service offer
- Case studies
- Water harvesting
- Sustainable solutions incorporating the Ecogranite range with high recycled content
- Existing and future legislation

This Continuous Professional Development seminar from Hanson Formpave lasts for approximately 40 minutes in total and provides a thorough understanding of the use of permeable paving within SUDs schemes. It has been accredited by the RIBA CPD Certification Service as providing a valuable contribution to the Continuous Professional Development of construction professionals.

Areas covered: National

Also available: Technical brochure

Free site specific design service

