10 Year Limited Warranty

James Hardie® cladding products with ColorPlus® Technology

James Hardie Europe B.V. ("Hardie") warrants for usage in Europe* and Turkey only, to the purchaser and all transferees prior to and including the first owner of the structure to which James Hardie® cladding (the "Product") is applied and the first transferee thereof ("covered person"), that the Product is free from defects caused by faulty manufacture or faulty material. When the Product is used for its intended purpose, properly installed and maintained according to Hardie's published installation manual, the Product will, for a period of 10 years from the date of the purchase:

1. not crack, chip, peel, rot or delaminate, and
2. resist damage caused by termite attacks.

Hardie warrants that the ColorPlus® Technology paint on the Product will, for a period of 10 years from the date of the purchase, not crack, peel, rot or delaminate, when the Product is used for its intended purpose, properly installed and maintained according to Hardie's published installation manual.

If during the warranty period a Product proves to be defective, Hardie shall provide a replacement Product or reimburse the purchase price. In the event of replacement of the Product under the terms and conditions of this warranty, the original warranty will apply to the replacement Product for the remainder of the warranty period.

Hardie's liability hereunder to the covered person shall be subject to the following procedure:

1. The claimant must prove that he or she is the covered person by showing Hardie the purchase receipt which includes the date of purchase;
2. The covered person must inform Hardie (in writing) within 2 months of discovery of the claimed fault. The notice must describe the location of the Product, details of the claimed defect and other relevant information. If the covered person fails to claim within 2 months of discovery he or she shall forfeit his/her rights;
3. Upon discovery, the covered person must use his/her best efforts to prevent further damage until the claimed defect or failure is remedied;
4. The covered person must grant Hardie access to the structure where the Product is installed, in order to assess the warranty claim.

The warranty does not cover damage or defects resulting from or in any way attributable to: (a) the improper storage, shipping, handling or installation of the Product (including, without limitation, failure to have the Product installed in compliance with the installation instructions provided by Hardie in the installation manual or local building codes) and/or improper installation or maintenance of accessories and/or using unfit accessories, (b) neglect, (c) abuse, (d) misuse, (e) repair or alteration (f) acts of God, including floods/ fires/ severe weather etc. (g) impact of foreign objects, (h) growth of mould, mildew, fungi or any other organism, (i) lack of proper maintenance, (j) defects in, failure of, or damage to the structure to which the Product is applied, (k) any cause other than manufacturing defects attributable to Hardie.
