WoodEx[®] JOINERY RANGE

Exclusive to James Latham, WoodEx[®] is a versatile, premium quality, engineered hardwood and softwood timber product made from European Redwood, European Oak, Sapele and Red Grandis.

Combining high performance with aesthetic appeal, WoodEx[®] offers numerous features and benefits. It has two high-quality, clear faces for use in joinery applications and is ideally suited for use in timber doors and windows as the product offers greater dimensional stability. In addition, Lathams can supply the product either as finger-jointed or as one piece.

Benefits of WoodEx[®]

- Dimensional Stability
- Uniform performance and appearance
- Less Handling
- Cost saving
- Reduced waste
- Known costs
- SBD tested
